Duralastic Spring System

Duralastic technology descends from Switzerland, which characteristic springs with an hour glass shape. This application helps to increase lateral stability or in other word it is surge resistance.

Our Duralastic Spring mattresses offer evenly spreads support spring system, paired with softer and improved padding that cradles and adheres to your curves to give you the utmost comfort. It offers pressure relief for shoulders, arms and hips. On top of that, it is less hassle, as it is a non-flip design.
